

Glossary:Pig housing - slatted floors

Statistics Explained

Pig housing on slatted floors are animal houses where the floors can be:

- partially slatted: part of the floor has slats where the manure and urine drop down below the floor into a pit, where they form slurry;
- completely slatted : the floor has slats where the manure and urine drop down below the floor into a pit, where they form slurry.

Related concepts

- Animal housing
- Pig housing - straw beds

Statistical data

- Farms and farmland in the European Union - statistics