

Glossary: Monetary poverty

Statistics Explained

People are considered at risk of monetary poverty when their equivalised disposable income (after social transfers) is below the at-risk-of-poverty threshold . This is set at 60 % of the national median equivalised disposable income after social transfers.

Related concepts

- Equivalised disposable income
- At-risk-of-poverty rate
- Relative median income ratio
- Relative median at-risk-of-poverty gap
- Income quintile share ratio

Statistical data

- Living conditions in Europe - income distribution and income inequality